———— CAMP OBJECTIVES ————

The All-American Soccer Camp provides a great environment for learning the skills, techniques, and tactics of the world's most popular sport. We will provide quality, enthusiastic coaches who have all played and have extensive background in the game of soccer. The camp not only teaches the components of soccer but also provides a fun, educational soccer environment, which helps the camper develop a love for playing.

Our philosophy at All-American Soccer Camps is to teach the camper to be successful in soccer the American way. Soccer in the United States has its own style and is now being recognized worldwide. US soccer has made tremendous progress since the inception of All-American Soccer Camps 22 years ago. Our camp has and will continue to meet the needs of every camper wanting to learn, be successful and enjoy the great game of American soccer!

From basic fundamental skills for the beginner to the advanced technical skill training that you will receive as an advanced player, All-American Soccer Camp will meet the needs of every individual who attends.

———— CAMP CURRICULUM ————

- Proper technique: trapping, passing, heading, shooting
- Attacking: shooting, volleys, 1 on 1, 2 on 2
- Defending: tackling, containing, clearing, and tactics in game situations

———— WHAT TO BRING ————

ALL CAMPERS bring outdoor soccer shoes, shin/guards, water jug, and sun screen.

———— CAMP DIRECTOR - DOUG ELDER ————

Doug Elder is the head coach of the 2008 National Finalist Midwestern State men's soccer team. Coach Elder is a former collegiate All-American and ex-professional player. He currently holds a USSF "A" coaching license and has been the All-American camp director since 1989. In addition to having an extensive soccer background, he is especially skilled in relating his soccer knowledge to players of all ages and skill levels.
